Dark Companion Kindle Edition Marta

Dark Companion is my homage to Jane Eyre and other classic Gothic novels in which a vulnerable young person is lured to an isolated spooky setting in order to be used by someone more powerful and cunning. So often people focus only on the romance in Gothic novels -- and there is that! (Every Gothic needs swoon-worthy scenes.)

Note Dark Companion is not a paranormal romance novel. Marta Acosta calls it dark Gothic. When the manuscript for Dark Companion first arrived in my hands, I admit that I was a little scared. It was daunting stack of 200+ pages that would later be printed, bound, and shipped off as a book.

Dark Companion by Marta Acosta - Goodreads

Such is not the case with the heroine of Marta Acosta's "Dark Companion"... but then, this book really doesn't fit easily into any categories. It's a darkly vivid story that isn't quite horror, and it has a tinge of magical realism while still rooting itself in reality. Its only real problem is the overly tidy ending.
